NEW YORK THEATRE WORKSHOP

www.nytw.org

- The Misanthrope
by Molière, directed by Ivo van Hove Iconoclastic director Ivo van Hove stunned NYTW audiences with his critically acclaimed 2004 production of HEDDA GABLER. This season van Hove returns to NYTW - his American home - with a world premiere production of THE MISANTHROPE, Molière's classic comedy about the absurdities of social conventions and pretensions. As with HEDDA GABLER, van Hove will revitalize THE MISANTHROPE with a fresh, modern perspective - viewing Molière's text through the lens of our society in which the traditional social fabric has frayed and virtual relationships can be deleted with the simple push of a button.

ROUNABOUT THEATRE COMPANY

www.roundabouttheatre.org

- Pygmalion

by George Bernard Shaw, directed by David Grindley

When a pompous phonetics expert (Tony Award Winner Jefferson Mays, I AM MY OWN WIFE, JOURNEY'S END) bets that he can teach a Cockney flower girl to act and speak like a lady, he gets more than he bargained for: Eliza Doolittle (Golden Globe winner Claire Danes, THE HOURS, Baz Luhrmann's ROMEO + JULIET) provokes his interest, his anger, and ultimately, his passion. As her lessons progress, it becomes obvious that it is Henry who has the most to learn about bad behavior.
