“If a playwright washes up on a desert island, one of her 10 books must be the Dramatists Sourcebook.”

—Paula Vogel, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of *How I Learned to Drive

New from TCG Books:
The 26th Edition of the Dramatists Sourcebook
With Over 800 Listings and Opportunities

NEW YORK, NY — Theatre Communications Group (TCG) is pleased to announce the publication of the fully revised 26th edition of the *Dramatists Sourcebook, with more than 800 opportunities for playwrights, translators, composers, lyricists and librettists, including script-submission procedures for 300 professional theatres, 100 prizes and scores of publishers, fellowships, residencies, developmental programs, agents, service organizations, state arts agencies and reference publications.

“The deities of the theatre are the playwrights. These gods have their own bible—the Dramatists Sourcebook.” —*Backstage

The Sourcebook is thoroughly indexed and contains an invaluable calendar of submission deadlines, along with the “Simple Working Guide for Playwrights” by Tony Kushner. The resource was first published in 1981, when it contained 300 listings. New editions are published biennially.

“A treasure trove of sound advice and practical information for the working writer. It provides a road map for beginning writers and is an essential reference for those well traveled.”

—Donald Margulies, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of *Dinner with Friends

Theatre Communications Group (TCG) is the national organization for the American theatre. It exists to strengthen, nurture and promote the professional not-for-profit American theatre. Founded in 1961, TCG’s constituency has grown from a handful of groundbreaking theatres to nearly 700 member theatres and affiliate organizations and more than 12,000 individuals nationwide. TCG offers its members networking and knowledge-building opportunities through conferences, events, research and communications; awards grants, approximately $2 million per year, to theatre companies and individual artists; advocates on the federal level; and serves as the US Center of the International Theatre Institute, connecting its constituents to the global theatre community. TCG is the nation’s largest independent publisher of dramatic literature, with 11 Pulitzer Prizes for Best Play on the TCG booklist. It also publishes the award-winning AMERICAN THEATRE magazine and ARTSEARCH®, the essential source for a career in the arts. In all of its endeavors, TCG seeks to increase the organizational efficiency of its member theatres, cultivate and celebrate the artistic talent and achievements of the field and promote a larger public understanding of, and appreciation for, the theatre.

In 2005, TCG received the Tony Honors for Excellence in Theatre in recognition of its impact on the national field. TCG and its member theatres are major contributors to the American theatre sector, which employs nearly 130,000 people, produces more than 187,000 performances each year and contributes $1.9 billion to the US economy annually. A 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, TCG is led by executive director Teresa Eyring and governed by a national board of directors representing the theatre field.
